Former Congressman John Paul Hammerschmidt Endorses Robin Lundstrum for State Rep

Springdale – Robin Lundstrum is pleased to announce the support former Congressman John Paul Hammerschmidt in her campaign for State Representative District 87.

“I have known Robin for many years due to her activity in the Republican Party,” said Hammerschmidt. “She is someone who can be trusted to represent conservative values. Robin will work to stop Obamacare, lower taxes on working families, and create a more business friendly environment. We need more people like Robin in our state legislature.”

“Having the support of Congressman Hammerschmidt truly means a lot to me,” said Lundstrum. “He paved the way for Republicans in our state and has been fighting for conservative causes for many years. His legacy inspires me and I will work hard every day to try and live up to it.”

Lundstrum and her husband Tom reside in Elm Springs, where she serves as a member of the City Council. She is a local small business owner and board member of Arkansas Family Council. Lundstrum filed for State Representative in February and will be on the ballot in the Republican Primary.
