Lundstrum Reaches $50,000 In Contributions

"I'm honored by the amount of support my campaign has received so early"

Springdale – Robin Lundstrum released the following statement today announcing her campaign for State Representative District 87 has raised more than $50,000:

"Meeting new people is my favorite part about running for office," said Lundstrum. "Knowing my message is resonating with voters is very encouraging. Today we reached the $50,000 mark, making us one of the top State Representative campaigns in the state."

"I'm honored by the amount of support my campaign has received so early. My supporters can count on me to use these resources to run a clean, positive campaign focused on ways to advance Arkansas," continued Lundstrum.

District 87 covers parts of Benton and Washington Counties, including Siloam Springs, Tontitown, Elm Springs and Springdale.
